Note Book

When I was a little girl (I was too, once) the word "history" to me had the connotation of something that happened long, long ago. I felt that it was a complete waste of time to go back and learn about "what used to be;" the important thing was to find out what was going to happen tomorrow. But you know what? As I grow older, and older, and older, the word history takes on a new meaning because it won't be many more years before I'll be a part of it and I certainly don't want to be put away into some musty old archive to be forgotten forever.

It is not surprising to me now that so many people find tremendous enjoyment in the pursuit of genealogy, reviewing interesting events of people and things gone by, and re-visiting the fountain-heads of folklore.

This year Kentucky is observing the 175th anniversary of its entrance into the Union. Governor Breathitt has appointed a state chairman to commemorate the event and "interested historians" in each of the 120 counties have been appointed to bring into focus the history of the particular area.

In Fulton County Mary Nelle Wright (Mrs. Hendon) is serving as anniversary chairman. She is doing an extremely creditable job of creating an awareness of the fine, old history that has made this area one of those places that will always be held near and dear to its pioneer citizens, and to the citizens of today and tomorrow who will perpetuate and respect the memory of (Continued On Page Eight)

You Mean Ole Judge!

We're sure that nearly everyone around here has had some experiences with the change-over to daylight time this week. Some funny; some irritating; some frustrating.

We understand that over in a neighboring county an irate lady called up the County Judge and proceeded to bawl him out good for letting the County go on daylight time. "This extra hour of sunshine", she warned, "is simply going to burn up all of my flowers."

When You Think Of History You Think Of People; Cayce Folks Proud Of The People Who Made It

An Editor's Note

Mrs. DuEthe (Weir) Ammons and Mrs. Maye (Asbell, Hampton) Wall are residents of Cayce, Kentucky who have watched the world go by in the pleasant, little community alongside the GM&O Railroad. While Cayce is an enthusiastic and modern place in which to live, and where people talk of events of the day, perhaps one of the greatest sources of pleasure is to recount the events of gone-by days and the people who made them interesting.

In 1963 these two lovely ladies put on paper the history of Cayce, but mostly, the history reveals, they recorded the names of the people who lived there past and present, and their whereabouts and accomplishments as of 1963.

The reader must remember that the names of people and places are current as of 1963. Some of them have moved away, some have gone to their final resting places and still others have changed endeavors. At any rate if you like local history, and the people whose names made the news, the following article by the two "historians" of Cayce will be mighty interesting reading and remembering.

First we will give you a brief history of Cayce as of January 1966. Then flip back the pages of time to other pleasant reading.

Brief History Of Cayce, Kentucky January, 1966

Cayce, Kentucky, is centrally located in the state's most westerly county.

Cayce - can rightfully boast of its being the boyhood home of Luther "Casey" Jones, an engineer of railroad and folk song fame. It is a small village in a progressive farming community. It now has two churches, two groceries, U. S. Post Office, a grain company, three filling stations, cafe, two beauty parlors, and a barber shop. It is located about midway between Fulton and Hickman on 94 highway, at the G. M. and O railroad. Part of the town, however known as the Junction, is at the junction of highways 94 and 239; this is the location of the filling stations and cafe.

Cayce elementary school, is one of the large up-to-date Fulton County (Continued On Page Eight)

Backstage With The Fluoridation Fighters Provokes Weird And Mysterious Feeling

There has been much discussion locally, pro and con, regarding the matter of fluoridation. Although the matter has resolved itself here in the fact that the water supply in both Fulton and South Fulton is fluoridated, it is interesting to look behind the scenes at the "warriors" who battle fluoridation.

Recently Paul Coates, a reporter for the Los Angeles Times-Washington Post, wrote an article that took us backstage for a personal "interview" with the fluoridation fighters.

Here it is:

Week before last, a bill was introduced in the California Legislature which would give the State Department of Public Health the right to order fluoridation of California's water supply, as a means of insuring dental health.

Observers shudder because of all the kooks that the bill will bring out from under their respective rocks for another season of ridiculous mud slinging.

The curious people who are organized against fluoridation fight it with fear words like "rat poison," "foreign plot," "high treason." The Commie saboteurs, we are told by these people, want us to drink fluoridated water, which will soften our collective brain, and weaken our will to resist. Then the rotten Reds can take over.

The backgrounds of some of the spokesmen for the antifluoridation forces who have tried and occasionally succeeded in blocking fluoridation programs around the country make interesting reading.

A gentleman named E. H. Bronner. He led the fight against fluoridation in Seattle some years ago, and his message came across so well that the issue was beaten two to one at the polls. The voters have since recovered. Seattle's water supply is now fluoridated.

Later he showed up at Clinton, Iowa, where he called fluorides a Communist plot and said their use in drinking water was "treason and the height of criminal insanity." His astonishing fervor roused the suspicions of The Clinton Herald. It investigated and found that he was an escapee from the state mental hospital at Elgin, Ill.

Mrs. Golda Franzen. In 1959 this fluoride fighter was convicted of violating the California Pure Food and Drug Act. She was given a suspended sentence and two years' probation for engaging in the advertising and sale of a cancer quack device.

Dr. Royal Lee. A graduate dentist, he became a vitamin pill jobber and was convicted in the U. S. courts of false and misleading advertising.

Morris A. Bealle. Published an anti-fluoridation paper called "American Capsule News." He later extended his fear campaign to include the Rockefeller family, charging that all the evils of modern medicine can be traced to the Rockefeller family. "The largest manufacturers of drugs." (The Rockefeller fortune was built on petroleum and allied products, not drugs.)

There are others who are dedicated soldiers in the war against dental health. For instance, the grand cuckoo of the Ku Klux Klan, Robert Shelton, who said it is a "subversive act."

That's the record of some of the leaders in this bizarre crusade.

Our Identity With The Land Is Basic; Our Lives And Our Freedoms Depend On Its Use

The News takes pleasure in publishing the following article from the Soil Conservation Service as a thought-provoking challenge to preserve our natural resources.

OUR IDENTITY WITH THE LAND

By D. A. Williams, Administrator
Soil Conservation Service

The founders of this county made its citizens the final resort for truth and wisdom. The individual holds the right to vote, the right to seek an education, the right to the pursuit of happiness, and the right to pray according to his own conscience.

Ownership of land has followed a similar tradition. Today, three-fourths of the land in the continental 48 States is under private ownership. Only about one fourth of our land is owned by all the people and managed by the Federal Government for all the people—among them our forests and parks and refuges. These lands are part of our national heritage.

The nearly three fourths of our land owned privately serves basic everyday needs. Here most of our food and fiber are produced, most of our wildlife is raised, most of our outdoor recreation is sought, and 73 percent of our commercial timber is grown. Here the natural beauty of the countryside can be enhanced and enjoyed.

Good farmers who can describe the soil by its feel in their hands, smell rain in the wind, and see colors no one else can see in a crop under an open sky truly understand the importance of these resources. But too many of us take them for granted.

Each year, Soil Stewardship Week is set aside for all of us to refresh and renew our identity with the land—the community of God and man. Without this identity and feeling of responsibility, our spiritual lives would seem futile and our conservation efforts irrational.

The soil and Water resources we have inherited are ours to improve, preserve and develop—or neglect. The individuals who own nearly three fourths of our land are the soil stewards in whose hands the decision lies. To them we owe our thanks and our help.

ADVANCING TO THE REAR

According to U. S. News & World Report, a wide array of businesses and their employees are now feeling the effects of the new minimum wage law. Under the new law, the minimum wage level rose on February 1 to $1.40 an hour from $1.25 and is scheduled to go to $1.60 next year. Results of a survey by U. S. News show that the latest changes in the minimum wage are speeding mechanization and resulting in layoffs, mostly among unskilled or least productive workers. Another publication, the Los Angeles Times, reports: "President Johnson is expected to announce soon a crash program in poverty areas of big cities..."

Thus, we have one branch of government legislating jobs out of existence and undermining taxpaying private enterprise, while another branch of government pours out tax funds to create jobs in its war on poverty.

POET'S CORNER

I SAW GOD WASH THE WORLD

I saw God wash the world last night
With his sweet showers on high;
And then, when morning came, I saw
Him hang it out to dry.

He washed each tiny blade of grass
And every trembling tree;
He flung his showers against the hill,
And swept the billowing sea.

The white rose is a cleaner white,
The red rose is more red,
Since God washed every fragrant face
And put them all to bed.
There's not a bird, there's not a bee
That wings along the way
But is a cleaner bird and bee
Than it was yesterday.

I saw God wash the world last night.
Ah, would He had washed me
As clean of all my dust and dirt
As that old white birch tree.

—William L. Stidger

FULTON'S

Library Corner

By Brenda Rowlett

It seems that today more than ever people want to travel throughout the various areas of the world. One of the new books received from the Department of Libraries in Frankfurt has a setting in Egypt and two of them have a setting in England.

YANKEE SAILS THE NILE, by Irving and Electa Johnson. In this story the authors were setting out on one of the world's most traveled waterways—and were among the last to make this storied trip.

AFTER THE FESTIVAL, by March Cost. Once again, March Cost writes a superb story about a woman in love—a story full of the emotion and spiritual overtones that make her work so widely read and eagerly awaited.

MY LORD OF CANTERBURY, by Godfrey Turton. This is the story of a life that shook the Christian world, a brilliant novel infused with the color, the pomp, and the pageantry of England's glorious and bloody sixteenth century.

Below are some more new books:

FORESTRY AND IT'S CAREER OPPORTUNITIES, by Hardy L. Shirley. Designed especially for those who plan to pursue forestry and related activities as a life career, this book provides the reader with excellent orientation in the broad areas of forest management.

FILLING THE CHINKS, by Ermina Jett Darnell. With Kentucky's rich background, we have no need of royal remains to fill the holes in our history. We have more of our own than will ever be revealed, but it is a great pleasure to add a few bits that have not been retold too many times.

TRAVELIN' ON WITH THE WEAVERS, by The Weavers. Here is another collection of songs by The Weavers, that "indomitable quartet of singers and banjo-guitar players who have had a major influence on the tremendous popularity of folk music in America."

THE STORY OF ISRAEL, by Meyer Levin. A small country, surrounded by hostile neighbors, Israel is the story of struggle and achievement. It is a country where the big cities are advanced far beyond the rest of the country, and where lonely outposts still ration precious water.

VIENNA, by Ilse Barea. Vienna is an international legend, tinged with nostalgia for a gay never-never land—a legend which has survived two world wars, a demotion from the center of a great Empire to the capital of a small country on the fringe of Western Europe, and the grave damage of incorporation in Hitler's Reich. The reality of Viennese history and the city's contribution to Europe civilization is no less fascinating.

A WILDERNESS BILL OF RIGHTS, by William O. Douglas. In Supreme Court Justice William O. Douglas, conservation has found the advocate and defender it so desperately requires. He eloquently enlists the reader in his fight—our fight—to defend our national heritage against the disfigurement of natural beauty, the pollution of rivers and streams, and the decimation of wildlife.

ALL THE LITTLE HEROES, by Herbert Wilner. With the publication of this long, moving, funny and original novel, Herbert Wilner joins that select company that comprise our most serious and consequential novelists.

THE SOILS THAT SUPPORT

US, by Charles E. Kellogg. This is a simple book about soils and their relationship to the people by one who loves them both. It is for anyone who needs to know something about the nature, use, and conservation of soils, etc.

VETERINARIANS AND THEIR PATIENTS, by Charles Paul May. A comprehensive picture of all phases of veterinary medicine, a profession that offers young people a wide variety of satisfying careers—in private practice, research laboratories, animal hospitals, the Armed Forces, and even in circuses and zoos.

YOU DON'T SAY, by Benjamin De Mott. The author is an essayist, novelist, reporter, critic, and Professor of English at Amherst. He conducts a lively investigation of current attitudes and institutions in this stimulating volume.

A SACRED TRUST, by Richard Harris. The story of America's most powerful lobby—organized medicine—and its forty-five-year multi-million dollar fight against public health legislation.

THIS JANUARY TALE, by Bryher. In 1966, Bryher returns to the fateful winter of 1066 which followed the Battle of Hastings when the Norman conquerors invaded England and began to drive the loyal and stubborn Englishman into exile.

Fulton High School graduates this year are: Marion Armbruster, Sara Ellen Brooks, Helen Fay Cardwell, Ora Elizabeth Carter, Lou Emma Chenaie, Dorothy Helen Corum, Betty Ann Davis, Betty Ann Easley, Betty Fields, Martha Elizabeth Gholson, Bobbye Ann Grisham, Miriam Grymes, Pearl Glasco, Jane Huffman, Edith Earle Lancaster, Marilyn Lynch, Joan McCollum, Juan Queen, Betty Lou Robertson, Barbara Ann Roberts, Elizabeth Ann Roper, Patricia Sublette, Marie Willey, Mary Jo Willey, Anna Catherine Worley, Lois Winfrey, Georgia Yates;

A large number from Good Springs was present for the installation of Rev. Oren Stover as pastor of Dresden-Good Springs churches last Sunday night at the Dresden Church. Rev. D. Y. Howton, Rev. Wendell Ordway and Rev. Howard Hayworth were commissioned by Hopewell Presbytery for this service.

Mrs. Delores Young, of Chicago, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Basil Watkins, and other relatives last week. She is presently employed as a teacher in a private school in Chicago.

Mrs. Ada Ross is still a patient in Volunteer General Hospital in Martin.

Fonnie Reed is much improved in the Weakley County Hospital and can now have visitors, we are glad to report.

Good Springs CPW will meet at the church on Saturday, May 6, at 1:30 p. m. Every woman in the community is invited to attend. The program and study will be "The Christian Woman In Today's World."

Seldon Parker is in the Baptist Hospital at Memphis for tests and treatment.

Mitchell Powell has been in the Fulton Hospital for several days. He is improving at present.

Mrs. Lucile Brann returned Monday from a visit with Miss Rachel Mathis at Farmington.

In a letter from Mrs. Beulah Bailey of Detroit, she reported the family all OK, but anxious for the time when they can be residents of Dukedom again.

Mr. and Mrs. Hillman Westbrook were in Newbern Wednesday night for a fellowship supper at the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, following which Mrs. Westbrook spoke to the group in connection with their March of Missions program.

The Dukedom Home Demonstration Club met at one o'clock, April 26, in the home of Mrs. Larry Watkins, with fifteen members, one visitor (Mrs. Jimmy Lowery), and Mrs. Helen Wylie, agent, present. Mrs. Donald Clinard, vice president, presided. Plans were begun for the county-wide picnic, the Rest Home visit and for club visitation day. ### AUSTIN SPRINGS

Rev. Russell Rogers filled his appointment at New Salem Baptist Church the past Sunday at 11 a. m. Sunday School is held at 10 a. m. and BTU convenes at 7:15. Rev. Rogers announced that Rev. L. W. Carlin, of Paducah, will deliver the sermon on Homecoming Day, the first Sunday in June. There will be many visitors at this annual affair, with lunch spread at noon. In the afternoon the service will be devoted to gospel singing, with well-known singers from a wide area. The public is invited by Rev. Rogers and the members.

Mrs. Buton Lassiter is recovering from a deep chest cold and is able to be getting out again.

Work began on the Acree Cemetery, by the caretaker, Harding Ainley, who is doing a splendid job. Funds will be needed the entire summer, and, to all who are interested, your contribution will be needed. See the committee in charge, or send a donation to Mrs. Laverne Windsor, Route 1, Dukedom, Tenn., who is secretary-treasurer.

Mr. and Mrs. Bell Farmer of St. Louis will arrive Friday, May 5, to spend their vacation with Mr. and Mrs. Grover True and all their relatives in this section.

Wess Jones isn't quite so well at this time. We hope he will be feeling much better soon.

Some time ago Condon Mitchell began his work as caretaker for the year 1967 at Morgan Cemetery, located near the Palmersville Road, and is keeping it very nicely so far. It would be good thinking on the part of those who have loved ones there to get busy and send in your dues right away, for expenditures increase each week during the summer months. The annual meet is the second Saturday in August. Please meet your obligations, so says the committee in charge.

Mrs. Dave Mathis is feeling some better at this writing and was able to attend church Sunday at New Salem Baptist.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenny Donoho and baby, from Chicago, have spent their vacation with parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Donoho. Mrs. Donoho, who is the former Brenda Puckett, is remaining for a longer visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cloyce Puckett.

CHESTNUT GLADE

By Mrs. Harvey Vaughn

(Sorry, Omitted Last Week)

Mrs. Laverne Owensby and Mrs. V. C. Simpson attended the meeting at the Gateway in Martin recently, representing the Chestnut Glade Community to obtain information concerning the annual Cancer Crusade, which is in progress at this time. It is hoped that each person will give thought to any danger signal that might save a life from this most treacherous and deadly enemy and will contribute to this most worthy cause to help combat this enemy which threatens each of our loved ones. Be ready with your contribution when the volunteers call at your home during the next few days. Those who will be calling in the Chestnut Glade community are Mrs. Laverne Owensby, Mrs. Jimmie Westbrook, Mrs. A. B. Reed, Mrs. Johnnie Hazelwood, Mrs. Harvey Vaughan and Mrs. Jim Burke.

The very early spring weather has hastened the blooming of all spring flowers and of special beauty are the hundred different varieties of iris now in bloom at the garden of Mr. and Mrs. Neal Ross. Visitors are cordially invited to see this beautiful display of all colors and varieties.

Mrs. Van Brann and Mrs. Opal Pounds have returned to their home in Memphis, after visiting Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Vaughn last week.

The local strawberry harvest is beginning about a week earlier than it has in many years.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Vaughn and Mrs. Van Brann visited Mrs. Rozelle Milam at the Baptist Hospital in Memphis, where she has been a patient for the past month, since she was struck by a car and severely injured. She is improving nicely at this time.

Mr. and Mrs. Travis Grissom, who were so severely injured in the car accident recently, were dismissed from the Baptist Hospital in Memphis Monday. It will be necessary for them to have further treatment at the hospital.

Sympathy is extended to Mrs. Carl Hollingsworth in the death of her mother, Mrs. Sizemore.

Meal Planning Is Important, Group Learns

Planning meals to include the basic requirements each day and how planning ahead saves time and money was the lesson demonstrated by charts and slides and presented by Mrs. Jim Burke and Mrs. Helen Wylie when the Chestnut Glade Club met in the beautiful new and modern home of Mrs. Orvin Morrison for the regular April meeting.

Mrs. W. C. Morrison led the song "Mother"; also "Happy Birthday", honoring Mrs. Lucy Gibbs, who had observed a birthday on April 18. Mrs. Laverne Owensby presented the devotional and Mrs. Jimmie Westbrook gave an informative lesson on "Lines and Design" of clothing.

Mrs. Paul Reams gave information and timely tips for the garden concerning insecticides and seeds.

The reading leader, Mrs. Harvey Vaughan, brought books for the reading project and presented each one present with a bookmark in recognition of National Library Week.

The recreation, "Fruitful Lines," was directed by Mrs. Jimmie Westbrook, with Mrs. Jim Burke winning the amusing contest. Refreshments were served.

The next meeting will be in the home of Mrs. Fred Vaughan at 1:30 p. m., May 18. Members are expected and visitors are cordially welcomed.

A nice crowd attended service at Johnson's Grove Sunday.

Several from here attended the 50th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Wade Sunday afternoon. A large crowd was there and they received lots of nice gifts. Due to the poor health of the Wades, the celebration was held in the home of Mrs. Wade's sister, Mrs. Harrison.

Clarence Roberts is a patient in Campbell's Clinic, but is expected home Tuesday. Mrs. Roberts spent a few days with him. Their daughter, Mrs. Martin DeBard, and husband, near Chattanooga also spent a few days with him last week.

Mrs. Jerry Ragsdale of Centerville, Ill., Jack Matthews and DeWitt Matthews were dinner guests of their brother, W. T. Matthews near Dukedom Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hall DeMyer of Lansing, Mich., have returned home after a two weeks' visit with relatives here.

Although Miss Paula Long, the Booster princess, didn't get first place in the Fish Fry beauty pageant last Friday, she was among the last six to be called back and the Booster Club was very proud of her. She will represent the club in the Strawberry Festival in Humboldt Friday. Good luck Paula.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Rogers spent the week end in Memphis with their daughter, Linda, and her husband, Jim Campbell.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Adams, of Martin, spent one day last week with his sister, Mrs. C. E. Lowe.

Down on the Farm

With JIM PRYOR

Agricultural Agent, Illinois Central Railroad

UDDER EXAMINATION PROFITABLE TO CATTLE PRODUCTION

The thought of udder examination for beef cows may seem most unusual to cattlemen, however, after long trials and much consideration, herdsman have found it to be very profitable. A little time spent when the calf is weaned and just after birth will save many young calves and also solve a few production problems later. A sound udder on a beef cow is worth well over $100.00 or about $25.00 per quarter, to the commercial cattlemen. It is worth even more to the purebred breeder. Let's look into the situation this way for an analysis. Suppose a cow drops a calf and it develops that the cow had one or two quarters infected with mastitis or other injury. You will have a calf that will be slow starting and one that will not go to the feeder sale as heavy as the calf with 4 dinner plates to serve him.

Udders on beef type cattle take an awful beating when the calf gets to the weaning stage. Proper attention at this time could save an udder, and this could possibly mean keeping a good producing cow in the herd. If trouble can be detected early, an injection of mastitis medicine, of your veterinarian's choice, should relieve the congestion. The same is true with fresh cows showing a little too much inflammation or mastitis. Under certain conditions the medicine may be left in the udder during the dry period. This, of course, should be carried out by direction of the veterinarian.

It does not take long to check the cow herd for udder trouble, and I believe you will be well paid for the time spent for this inspection.

Remember, even though you are in the beef cattle business, you are still depending on milk production for top profits.

Fulton County Soil District Enters Competition To Receive Top Citation

The Fulton County Soil and Water Conservation District has entered the 21st annual Goodyear competition to select the nation's top 53 conservation districts, according to Charles E. Wright, Rt. 1, Fulton, district chairman.

Activities of the district will be weighed against the performance of other districts in the state in determining the outstanding district in the annual event sponsored by the Goodyear Tire and Rubber Company of Akron, Ohio.

Key agricultural leaders will serve as judges and will select the state winner. Soil conservation efforts from January 1, 1967, through December 31, 1967, will be considered.

Grand award for the 53 districts selected nationally will be an expense paid, work-study trip to Arizona in Dec. 1968, for one member of the district governing body and the outstanding farmer-cooperator in each winning district. The 106 men selected will be guests at Goodyear Farms, a 14,000 acre general farm operation near Phoenix.

Fulton County district has taken part in the competition 10 times in the past. District Supervisors are Charles E. Wright, Route 1, Fulton, Clint Workman, Route 4, Hickman, Cecil Barnett, Route 2, Hickman, and Charles A. Everett, Route 4, Hickman, Ky.

Wright said the district's outstanding cooperator will be selected from over the 475 farm operators enrolled in the district program. Nationally, over 2,000,000 farmers in over 2,950 districts have signed cooperative agreements with local Soil and Water Conservation Districts.

OBION COUNTY

Joe Martin, County Agent
Union City, Tenn.

STRAWBERRIES

Yes sir: Obion County strawberries are good. Strawberries are ripe and since I have sampled them I can tell you they are really good. Try some of our home grown strawberries this week and you will realize that the strawberries shipped in from other areas just don't compare with Obion County strawberries.

Obion County does not have many strawberry producers left but you'll have to go a long way to find better growers than Mr. W. G. Dement and Mr. Tom Wade in Kenton area, Mr. Hayden Phebus in Rives area, and Mr. Carnell Mathias between Union City and Fulton. It's a sight to watch these farmers on the run with these strawberry fields but the market demands a quality product and strawberry producers have to closely supervise pickers in strawberry fields.

PORK PRODUCERS COUNCIL

A small group of Hog producers met in Union City recently and heard an explanation of the National Pork Producers Council given by Jack Quinton of Weakley County who is chairman of the Tennessee section of the National Pork Producers Council.

The National Pork Producers Council is an organization with a program to improve pork quality and promotion of pork sales. The local committee is composed of W. O. Butler, Harold Denson, Lemond Baker and Charlie Gibson with Mr. Gibson being chairman of the group.

PUSH BUTTON HOG FEEDING

Recently we visited the farm of Charles Powell near Fulton to observe him push buttons in his new mechanized hog feeding system. Mr. Powell's new system includes grain drying and storage facilities, mix mill grinding and mixing, overhead storage, augers to hog feeding floor, and necessary switches to enable Mr. Powell to push a few buttons and have his hogs fed.

Mr. Powell was busy during the late winter and spring installing the new facilities, and he is as proud of it as a kid with a new Christmas toy. The system works very efficiently and if you're going to improve your hog feeding system, we suggest that you visit the Powell Farm and talk with Charles Powell.

FARM DATES TO REMEMBER

May 15 - Wool Assembly, Bemis Bag Co. Warehouse, Bemis, Tenn.
May 18 - Feeder Pig Sale, Dresden.

UK Students Vote Aid To Past 65's

The University of Kentucky Student Government has appropriated $100 to establish ten scholarships of $10 each to help defray academic expenses of Donovan senior citizen students on the campus.

Thomas R. Post, Arts and Sciences senior, who has participated in a number of classes with the Donovan students, made the motion, unprecedented in the history of the Student Government. He said he had come to know many of these over-65 students, and believed in reversing the old adage, "the old shall help the young."

"In classes I've found the Donovan scholars interesting, stimulating and knowledgeable. Besides, they're fun to work with," he told the congress. "I have felt that we younger students should do something to show our appreciation."

Post's motion before the student body was discussed at length. An amendment to increase each scholarship to $20 will boost the next awards by $10 each.

The Parson Speaks

ANOTHER MOUSE LETTER

(Dated Feb. 3, 1880)

Dear Aunt Minnie,

It seems ages since last I heard from you. But, really, it has not been more than two weeks. My rafted halls in the attic of the Church are like an ancient castle that seems to care little for time and change, and in the midst of such changelessness, I lose track of the days.

Your letters bring me a ray of unexpected light and joy, Aunt Minnie, and I treasure each of them.

Dear Auntie, I was so hurt to hear of your arthritic ailment and the pain it causes you. I noted a sense of failure shadowing your thoughts with a haunt akin to sadness. Even though we are of different faiths, we can share the comforting Christ, the "magnificent Failure."

Yes, Auntie, there is a theme in the life of Christ that we have often overlooked. And it is the lesson in failure. His whole life is shadowed by a cross, which to the world of "successful mankind" is a colossal failure. But was He not telling us of human life, that it is a struggle beneath a cross, that though we stumble toward God, we do not retreat, that falling again and again is not the same as giving up, that struggle is not defeat and failure is part of human life? Failure for the Christian is his own human failure, and not a failure of the God in whom he trusts. We are weak, but our God is strong. We stumble and he up-lifts us. Being a mouse before God, establishes for us a God of mice. We need our bruises as a constant testimony of our right to his Fatherhood.

One of the most difficult burdens for modern man to accept is his cross of failure. We hear every day that we can have instant and constant happiness, that soon there will be no heartaches and tears in the world, no poverty or suffering, just as there should be no body odor, headaches or wrinkles. The image of success is given to us without calories and 97 percent caffeine free. It is instant, non-fattening, odorless success. Modern man cannot afford to admit failure in the face of such images. In spite of such false hopes, our sense of failure is even deepened by personal feelings of guilt. There are so many demands calling to us for attention, so many tragedies asking for judgment, so many wars to evaluate, so many things to which we are asked to commit ourselves, labors of love that go begging for our help, demands on our time, taxes upon our sympathy, even worlds to be discovered, and we with but one life to give.

Auntie, the Christian may not have the answer, but he has the hope. He may not see the meaning, but he believes in Him who gives it meaning. Even though he feels lost in the multitude, he knows that he is known. In the noise of demands and shouts, in the darkness of towering possibilities, he hears a voice, "... be not afraid. It is I. I am with you."

Christ is not for the perfect, but for those who need strength, not for the self-assured, but for those, who, like Peter, must reach up for help when they sink. Christ is not for those who claim instant success when they have failed, but for those who are willing to admit failure, and accept his divine success. Even the cross can be a success story, weakness can confound strength, and mice can instruct men.

Your loving nephew,
Churchmouse
Father Glahn

Introducing Our Churches - God's Agency For Spreading His Love

WESLEY METHODIST CHURCH

The early history of Wesley Methodist is rather vague. Our oldest citizens tell us the ground on which the first church was erected was given by Mr. Mark Hardin, who also built the first church.

The date and erection of the first church, a wooden structure, is not known, but is thought to have been in or about the year 1850. It was given the name of Wesley in honor of John Wesley, "The Father of Methodism."

In 1853 the church was destroyed by fire. Brother Weaver was the pastor at that time. He and some of the faithful members immediately began to build the second church. Some of the members who made it possible are: Jessie Walker, Mark Hardin, Milk Gardner, Mrs. Mary Bushart, Hall Cooley, Solomon Hancock, Jack Hardin, Mr. Clabe, Dr. W. S. Hamlett, and John Phelps.

The second church was built by Mark Hardin, the father of M. D. Hardin and Mrs. John Robey. The fall of 1883 was the beginning of the revivals, which continue to this day. Out of these great revivals have come some very prominent people.

In 1930 the church building was in a sad state of repair and the board of trustees, with the congregation, thought it best to tear down and rebuild.

On June 3, 1930, the cornerstone was laid in a very colorful and impressive ceremony. Former minister who were present at this service were: N. W. Lee, M. H. Alexander, J. F. Morelock, T. L. Perry and E. B. Rucker, the pastor at that time. They assisted Rev. R. A. Clark, the District Superintendent of the Paris District, in the dedicatory services. Wesley Beard was the church school superintendent and Mrs. Beard was president of the Woman's Society of Christian Service. The stewards were: C. C. Hancock, W. B. Weatherspoon, R. L. Howell, B. C. Walker, Wesley Beard, S. J. Walker and his wife, Callie, led the young people eight years.

Rev. Proctor is also minister to the Bethlehem Methodist Church.

CAYCE HISTORY

schools, located in the former High School building. It was constructed in the year 1935. This was also the site of the first High School of the community, constructed about the year of 1916.

History shows that some of the first settlers around Cayce were John and Ben Menees, Hugh Sparkman,

Mr. Drummond, Martin Oliver, William Bonner (father of Elizabeth and Martha Nichols), Jerry Mitchel and William Bynum, father of Reverend Finley Bynum.

The newly elected County Judge
—John Cruce.

The newly elected County Sheriff
—James Menees.

Now here is the story:

The little town was named for James Hardie Cayce, who was born in Graves County, Kentucky in 1830 and moved with his parents in 1845 to Columbus, Ky., where later he was engaged in the business of general merchant and trader. He also established stores in Moscow, Clinton, and Cayce.

The Mobile and Ohio Railroad, which later became the Gulf, Mobile and Ohio was one of the oldest in the south and first in Kentucky. Irishmen with dump-carts made the road-bed. By 1856 it had been completed as far north as Columbus, Ky.

At this time some of the other settlers nearby were William Campbell, Lewis Searce, Dr. Samuel Luten, Aaron Asbell, Andrew Shuck, David Mayes, James Cason, Hamilton Attebery, Samuel J. Noonan, Joshua Naylor, Richard Cruce, Albert Edmiston, John Burns, W. B. Gore, Joseph Roper, Frank Wall Sr. and Mr. Attebery owned the land adjoining Cayce. Frank Wall gave the land for the Methodist church ground.

Many hardships were endured by the settlers during the Civil War. After the battle of Belmont, the infantry passed, walking all day as they evacuated Columbus and Belmont. A man named Berry, who was a robber, was captured near Cayce during this time.

Cayce vicinity has experienced some destructive tornadoes. On Christmas day 1875 one passed over the county from south-west to north-east inflicting heavy losses to people in its path. The house of Andrew Shuck was completely demolished, inflicting a loss of $2500, and severely injuring Mr. W. M. Bacon, a son-in-law. A large trunk in the sitting room was forced open and the contents scattered far and near. A contract between two neighbors, left in the house for safe keeping was blown to Mayfield, Ky. and afterward returned. Bank notes amounting to $180 were carried through fields and woods and but half of them recovered from limbs and weeds around which they had been wrapped. One negro woman was killed and until this day there is a place near the Finley Bynum home, called "Over in the Hurricane."

Around 1877 Samuel E. and his brother George Johnson established a business that grew to such proportion that they were compelled to build an extensive brick storehouse to accommodate its trade. In 1885 they were engaged in shipping livestock and produce, having shipped in one year 100 cars of livestock. Also Mr. Hershel Johnson was a big stock dealer over a long period of years.

Some of the other merchants were Eli Reeves Furniture Store, Calvin Gore, John Mayfield, Albert (Buck) Searce, Frank Wall Sr., Allen Campbell, Dr. John Naylor and Charlie Bondurant, Henry Campbell, Tommy Roper, Tom Haines, Jack McClellan, Jim and E. B. Jones, Rob Roper, Ernest Mayfield, Bill Asbell, Joe Asbell, Joe Allen, Charles Roper, Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Fisher, Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Sloan, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Campbell, Mr. Mack Graham, Mr. Roy Cruce, Mr. Arthur Burns, Mr. Buford Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Cruce, Mr. and Mrs. Ardell Simpson (34 years), Mr. and Mrs. Murrell Williams, Mr. Belt, Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Fowler, Mr. and Mrs. Mett Arrington, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Harrison.

Blacksmiths were W. A. Albritton, Jesse Reeves, Will Lannon, Bill Cloyse, Jack Burns, Wesley Cloyse was a Gunsmith.

Walter, Elbert and Cornelious Bondurant had a flour mill. Jack Burns and John McClellan had a planer mill. Mr. Simpson from Mississippi had a cotton gin. Mr. J. R. Austin has recently sold a seed business that he has operated for several years.

The Postmasters have been Samuel E. Johnson and daughter, Pearl, for many years. Bob Roper, Mayme (Asbell) Searce from about 1922 to 1939. Mr. Tom Attebery, with assistant Miss Clarice Bondurant. Mrs. Maye (Asbell, Hampton) Wall from 1942 to 1957. Bill Gadberry from 1957 to 1962. At present Mrs. Earlene Tibbs with assistant Mrs. DuEthel (Weir) Ammons.

(Ed's note: The postoffice was closed last year.)

Mr. S. E. Johnson was a mail messenger. He took the mail from the postoffice to the depot to meet the trains. For many years he and the mail messengers that followed met the night train around eleven P. M. Mr. Will Taylor also held this job for some time, as did Guy Johnson while he was assistant postmaster. In the early fifties the passenger trains were discontinued on the G. M. & O. and mail has been transported by Post Office bus since. For several years a public passenger bus from Hickman to Fulton served Cayce, now the only public transportation is a bus from St. Louis to Mobile.

The old "state" road from Hickman, which became impassable for cars in winter began to take on a new look in about 1926. Work continued on until early thirties. The highway (239) from Union City was finished through Cayce in 1936. The right-of-way was changed near "Uncle" Jack Burn's blacksmith shop (about a mile south of Cayce) and has changed Cayce considerably. Not a house was on the road from I. Taylor's (known as David Maye's place) to Justin Attebery's place. Fields Bros. gas station and James McMurry's home were the first built. The service stations, cafe, beauty salon and many homes have been built since.

Around 1904 or later rural telephones were put in most of the homes. Some of the presidents of the company were Jim Thomas, Tom Attebery, Harry Sublett Sr. and Luther Hampton. Telephone operators were Winnie and Lucy Murchison, Ethel and Lillian Edmiston, Effie and Gertie Asbell. Mrs. Clara Carr and Mrs. Inez Menees and Nannie Bell Menees. Now we have dial system phones.

The following are registered nurses from Cayce:

Mary Ella (Jones) Wainwright, Mangum, Okla.
Lois (Mayfield) DePasquale, Metuchen, N. J.
Hazel (Mayfield) Brooks, Webster Grove, Mo.
Wilmar (Overby) Tyson, Jesup, Ga.

Dr. Sam Luten, Dr. Joe Luten, Dr. John Naylor, Dr. Lon Naylor and Dr. Chester Wright (all deceased). Dr. Drew Luten, Barnes Hospital, St. Louis, Mo. Dr. James Ray Ammons, Murray, Ky.

Cayce schools have progressed over the many years, from a one room school building about 1900. It has grown to a large elementary school at Cayce and a county-wide High School between Cayce and Hickman. Following is a partial list of teachers:

R. A. Mabry and Howard Campbell from Cayce are now farm agents.

Hazel (Campbell) Hutchens, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Campbell and Roscoe her husband, in partnership with his brother and his wife are now operating their new modern Parkway Rest Home at Fulton, Ky.

C. M. Sloan is the present barber. Others have been Tom Underwood, W. A. Campbell and Luten Hampton.

One thing we don't want to fail to mention is the first mill west of the Tennessee river which was built on Bayon-du-Chien Creek near here at Moscow in 1826. It was horse drawn at first and changed to a water mill in 1827. It was built and operated by David Mense. Also of interest was a brick yard operated right here in the midst of Cayce, owned by E. E. and George Johnson. Brick homes built for them are still standing in fair shape. Mr. J. W. Ammons Sr. was manager of the brick yard.

On highway 239 the following have built new houses—Jim Harrison, John Harrison, W. B. Fuller, J. C. Menees Jr., house on school ground for teachers, Lewis Barnes, Earl Tibbs, Bobby Curdin, Harry Tucker Jr., Billy Liliker, Joe Fred Liliker, Glen Goodwin trailer house, Walter Bequette new house, Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Williams have a nice new trailer house and Mrs. Lurline Cruce also has one. Jr. (Buck) and wife, Marie, daughter of Enal and Margaret Carter Lynn of Tenn. (Burns, Powers, Dowdy, Henderson and McKiver are some of her ancestors) is the Valedictorian of the 1963 Eighth Grade graduating class at Cayce. Also Morris Carr Bondurant (a relative of J. C.) is Valedictorian of the Senior class at Fulton County High School. He too has many pioneer ancestors, Allen Dowdy 1799 - 1859 (wife Martha 1798 - 1865) daughter Bethena Dowdy, Columbus Piote McClellan (wife Isabella Henderson), Clara (McClellan) Carr (grandmother) Myra Bell (Carr) Bondurant, mother and father Maurice Bondurant. (Continued From Page One) those wonderful people who made our country what it is today.

Mary Nelle's radio program each Tuesday morning at 9:30 a.m. on WFUL is growing in interest with each broadcast. To those of us who are "newcomers," the sentimental vignettes of local history are extremely interesting and informative. To the old-timers it is a nostalgic visit into the past.

On Friday of this week three of Fulton's handsome "landmark" homes will be visited. Each home has an individual personality, and each has some history that we hope will live forever in the annals of our community's hall of fame.

We remind newcomers and the old-timers to take time out Friday, from two until five p. m. to join the tour, or at least part of it. Surely the time will be enjoyable and well spent, to say nothing of the pleasure to be derived to know that something old, is still cherished in this something new world in which we live.

Speaking of history, twenty years ago, this week, as our Turning Back The Clock column reveals, Paul and I published the very first issue of the Fulton News with our names proudly notated on the masthead.

It said then as it says now, "Paul and Johanna M. Westpheling, editors and publishers." I recall so well how, on our long drive from Washington, D. C. to Fulton, we eagerly anticipated the first sight of that editorial page with our very own titles of ownership published in view for all to see.

We debated whether we should put Paul Westpheling, publisher and Johanna Westpheling, editor or whether we should put co-publishers, or co-editors. We decided along the way that we should make it "editors and publishers," as it is today.

We resolved it that way for a variety of reasons. Primarily however, we thought that if a person came in wanting to give us an order, or a news story, we could fill whatever role was necessary for the occasion. Also if they wanted to complain to the publisher about the editor, or vice versa, either of us could listen and then take it up with the other, later.

Sometimes it works, sometimes it doesn't, but in any event there is never a dull moment.

You are never forced to have a certain kind of heating system just to have flameless electric heat. From the wide variety of systems available you can pick and choose, mix and match to get just the right combination for your own home.

You can choose from "bashful" electric heating systems that hide themselves in the ceiling and let you know that they are there only by the soft, gentle warmth that bathes the entire room or you can select systems that give room-by-room temperature control or suit-case-sized equipment

A GLASS OF MILK

It sounds so simple — just a glass of milk! Yet the nutritional contributions of milk are so important and so varied that nutritionists generally recommend up to four glasses a day for children and two to three for adults, as a part of a varied diet. Unless otherwise specified, a glass of milk means whole, pasteurized milk; the capacity of the ordinary table-serv-ice glass is eight ounces, one-half pint. If you multiply the various nutrient values given below by the number of glasses of milk consumed, you will arrive at the day's contribution from this source.

High In Nutrition

Most people think first of calories, which represent the heat and energy value of the foodstuff, and are significant in weight control. Fluid milk's caloric contribution is comparatively low in relation to its appetite appeasement and nutritional values. A glass of milk supplies 159 calories. This is seven percent of the 2100 calories recommended daily for a normally active woman between 18 and 35 years of age. Men of comparable age are allowed 2900 calories. But a glass of milk also provides nutrients in the percentages of the recommended daily allowances as shown in the table below.

Thus, it is apparent that milk, taken in from two to three glasses a day by adults and up to four for children, will supply a significant percentage of the recommended nutrients.

Milk Via Other Foods

In a previous column, we mentioned eating milk, for those who do not wish to drink it. In cereals, sauces, soups, gravies, custards, and scalloped dishes, this is an excellent way to use milk.

Breathitt, McCallum Awarded TV Permit

WASHINGTON — The Federal Communications Commission has assigned an ultra high frequency television channel to Hopkinsville, Ky., effective June 5.

The FCC also announced Friday it had approved the sale of WKYT-TV at Lexington, Ky., by the Taft Broadcasting Co. to Kentucky Central Television, for $2.5 million. The Hopkinsville permit was assigned to Channel 51. The application was from Gov. Edward T. Breathitt, Gary H. Latham and state Rep. Shelby McCallum of Benton, speaker of the Kentucky House. The station would be Hopkinsville's first.

The purchaser of the Lexington station, Channel 27, is affiliated with Mid-Central Investment Co. The latter, in turn, is owned by Kentucky Central Life Insurance Co., of which Lexington financier Garville D. Kincaid owns a majority of the stock.

Kelley Resigns Post At School

Accepts Position In UTMB Office

Union City High School basketball coach and guidance counselor Paul Kelley today announced his resignation and plans to accept a position at the University of Tennessee at Martin.

Coach Kelley, who compiled an outstanding record while coaching both boys and girls basketball, said he has accepted a position in the office of Henry Allison, UTMB dean of admissions. He will finish out the school year at the local high school and then begin his duties at UTMB immediately, he said.

"I've never been happier than I have here in Union City," Coach Kelley said. "I wouldn't have left here for another high school under any circumstances. But this position at UTMB offers me a chance for advancement and opportunities to improve my own education. It's an opportunity my family and I can't afford to pass up."

"But I've got to say there is no better place to live than Union City and I never expect to be treated as well anywhere as I've been treated here. The teams and the citizens of Union City have backed me 100 percent and that's a joy for any coach."

Coach Kelley came to Union City in 1963 and twice has taken his boys team to the state tournament, first in 1965 and then again this year. His boys teams have won 96 games and lost only 21 during his four years of coaching here while his girls team has won 60 and lost 35.

Coach Kelley had been coach at Halls for two years when he accepted the Union City position. Previously he had coached at Dresden High School for four years. He is a graduate of UTMB.

No announcement has been made regarding a successor

FEAR OF DEATH IS IT NECESSARY?

Most people live in almost constant fear of death. They do not like to think that man's days are as grass and all his glory as the glory of a fading flower (Psa. 103:15, 16). They do not wish to face up to the fact that "It is appointed unto men once to die" (Heb. 9:27).

This is natural, for God's Word declares that death is "the wages of sin" (Rom. 6:23) and "after this the judgement" (Heb. 9:27) and the danger of the "second death" (Rev. 20:14). This is why I Cor. 15:56 says that "The sting of death is sin."

Yet the Psalmist David was not afraid of death. He said: "Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil"—but note the reason: "FOR THOU ART WITH ME" (Psa. 23:4). David had come to know God and had been delivered from the fear of death.

But we, today, have an even greater reason to be free from the fear of death, for 1,000 years after David, Saul of Tarsus, the chief of sinners was saved by grace and was sent forth to proclaim the "gospel (good news) of the grace of God" (Acts 20:24).

He went forth to tell men how "Christ died for our sins" (I Cor. 15:3) and robbed Satan of all his claims against us.

"That through death He might destroy him that had the power of death, that is, the devil; and deliver them who through fear of death were all their lifetime subject to bondage" (Heb. 2:14, 15).

And when the apostle himself neared death, he said: "To die is gain" (Phil. 1:21) and "the time of my departure is at hand; henceforth there is laid up for me a crown..." (II Tim. 4:6-8).

Cheating Uncle Sam

Question: what is the difference between tax evasion and tax avoidance?
Answer: five years in the penitentiary.

This old joke is often used by lawyers to illustrate a basic principle of income tax law—that, although evading taxes is illegal, avoiding taxes is not.

In fact, avoiding taxes is not only legal in a technical sense but perfectly ethical as well. Judge Learned Hand once put it this way: "There is nothing sinister in so arranging one's affairs as to keep taxes as low as possible. Everybody does so, rich or poor; and all do right, for nobody owes any public duty to pay more than the law demands. Taxes are enforced exactions, not voluntary contributions."

Thus, the law itself suggests various ways of saving taxes: by splitting income between husband and wife, by investing in tax-exempt bonds, by using an accelerated rate of depreciation on property.

And there are many tax-saving methods which, even if not actually suggested by the law, are at least within its permissible leeway.

Then where does lawful avoidance end and unlawful evasion begin?

The most obvious evasion is simply to file no tax return at all. But there are other telltale signs—"badges of fraud"—that the law looks for.

One such sign is a double set of books—the first to show the government, the second to reflect the real facts of a business operation. Another is a dummy bank account, in which to hide unreported income. And another is a fake claim of "charitable contributions," so fatten the amount of deductions from total income.

All devices of this kind have one thing in common: they indicate a dishonest state of mind, an intention to deliberately cheat Uncle Sam.

Of course, even the honest person may be tempted to venture close to the dividing line between avoidance and evasion. But outright skulduggery is relatively rare. The Internal Revenue Service says that 95% of all returns are completely honest.

Perhaps some citizens, at least, share the sentiments of Oliver Wendell Holmes, who said: "I like to pay taxes. With them I buy civilization."

Electric Heat Pump is Year-Round Springtime in a Box

A flameless electric heat pump will give you real year-round comfort without lifting a finger. Well, almost without lifting a finger. You do have to set the thermostat ONCE when the unit is first installed.

And after the finger has dialed the perfect moment of climate that you want for your home, you can sit back and relax and let the miraculous machine do the rest.

For an electric heat pump heats AND cools, according to the Live Better Electrically Program, and automatically changes from one to the other as the outside weather changes. Outside temperatures can be 90 degrees one day and 30 degrees the next and your home will stay at the degree of springtime comfort that you originally dialed on the thermostat.

The amazing heat pump needs only electricity and air to provide you with year-round climate control. When cooling is required, it extracts heat and moisture from the inside air and discharges them outdoors.

When heating is needed, it reverses the operation, extracting heat from the outdoor air (there's extractable heat in the air even on cold days) and delivering it at a higher temperature to the indoor air.

The heat pump also dehumidifies, filters and cleans the air. And if you are entertaining, it will even rid your rooms quickly and quietly of tobacco smoke.

What Is Electric Resistance Heat?

Flameless electric resistance heat is the key to comfort in any home. Its operating principle is as basic as the electric light bulb. Electricity is made to flow through a wire to create heat—pure and clean heat.

Unlike fossil-fueled heating systems that burn coal, gas or oil in a furnace, flameless electric heat is 100 percent efficient. Every bit of electricity you pay for creates heat for you. No heat gets wasted and no heat disappears up a chimney. No fuel is burned, no soot is created, no oxygen is used up and no smoke can escape because there is none.

Flameless electric resistance heat is the heating system that's quietest of all. It's the heating system without blasts, cold spots or drafts and it's the heating system that lets you dial the heat you want in every room.

Flameless electric resistance heating can be thin, attractive baseboard heaters that put a ring of warmth around your house. It can be recessed wall panel heaters that put the heat into places that need it most—hallways, bathrooms, entranceways, etc. It can be cables hidden in ceiling plaster or between sheets of gypsum board on the ceiling to radiate gentle heat down into the room. Or, it can be a combination of all three of these methods.

Flameless electric resistance heat is the system you convert to when fossil-fueled heating systems disappoint or fail you.

Flameless electric resistance heat is all of these things and many more, according to Edison Electric Institute. It's the newest

Flameless Heat Is Great For Dads

Electric heat is great for Dads! With an electric heating system installed, Dad can truly have more time for relaxing when he gets home at night. He doesn't have to check on the level of the tank or order fuel delivered and he doesn't have to be concerned with the cleaning, adjustment and repairs that are needed in old-style furnaces and heating systems.

For flameless electric heating equipment almost takes care of itself. Just turn the dial on the thermostat or thermostats—you can have one in each room, if you want—and there is clean, tailor-made comfort for all to enjoy.

Electric heating can take other drudgeries out of homeowners for busy fathers, too. With electric heating cable installed on the roof of the house, Dad no longer has to tackle the risky job of pulling the snow down to avoid roof damage.

And with flameless electric heating equipment embedded in his driveway, he can avoid the back-breaking—and sometimes heart attack-producing job of shoveling snow.

Cottonseed meal is an excellent fertilizer.

A special Clean-Up, Paint-Up, Fix-Up program for the downtown area, with special emphasis being placed on the back of each building, was discussed.

A representative from the chamber is to meet with the Twin Cities Development Association, which sponsors the Clean-Up Program each year, to discuss this problem and coordinate plans.

The raw cotton in the average cotton product makes up about one-sixth of its value.

Today there are thousands of different sizes, styles, and colors in cotton sheets.

Cotton was first brought to Europe by Alexander the Great about 330 B. C.

This year's models make the old car seem even older. Besides, it needs some repairs. In the long run, a new one would save money... IF...

If it weren't for today's excellent financing, few of us could ever afford a brand-new, fully-equipped car. Cash? In full? Not necessary. Modern financing puts the raciest new models, or good, dependable older models, in most garages at very little cost for the use of the money—for these whose credit records show they can handle their money wisely.

Good credit is important to you and easy to enjoy. Just see that you pay as agreed—promptly when due, in correct amounts—and your local credit bureau records will reflect your integrity. Furthermore, if you should move to any city across the nation, you would want credit there. No problem: your good credit history is quickly available to the local credit bureau through its professional affiliation with the Associated Credit Bureaus of America, Inc.
